Volume 1, number 3
November 2015

MEMORABLE DAY AT THE VILLAGE DU PÈRE NOËL, IN VAL-DAVID!

Sunday, December 20, 2015 is a date to be remembered! To let you enjoy the magic of the Holidays, Autisme Montréal has decided to organize, for the members, a free family outing at the Village du Père Noël, in Val-David. You must register your family no later than December 4, and mention the number of children and adults, who will be present to the Responsable of Direct Services at 514-524-6114, ext. 3052. If you register, please make sure that you will be present the day of this activity. Simply remember that a lot families would like to attend, but will not be able to do so, because of the limited number of places.

We will be leaving in a school bus at 10:00 a.m. from La Maissonnette (2990, Émile-Legrand, Montreal) and it is essential to be on time. The departure from Val-David will be at 3:30 p.m. and we will be returning to La Maissonnette.

Please bring a cold lunch, water, changes of clothes and facial tissues. To be able to really enjoy this activity, please make sure you are wearing appropriate clothes, namely a cap, mittens, scarf, warm coat, snowpants and winter boots.

Register quickly, because the number of places is limited.

Looking forward to seeing you there! ☺

NB: You will be responsible for your children. There will not be any shadows available.
